About SEARCCT

The Southeast Asia Regional Centre for Counter Terrorism (SEARCCT) was officially launched on 1 July 2003 by the Honourable Dato' Seri Syed Hamid Albar, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia.

SEARCCT serves as a leading Centre in the region to train and enhance the capacity of enforcement and security officials in collaboration with established think-tank institutions and international organisations. The Centre also promotes Malaysia's perspective on how best to deal with terrorism and encourages debate and consensus on the definition of terrorism, the necessity to study the root causes of terrorism and the promotion of a comprehensive approach to counter-terrorism. Activities leading to the "winning the hearts and minds" are also entwined in some of the programmes.

SEARCCT has also utilised various training courses, conferences, and forums to actively discuss and disseminate the urgency to have a multi-pronged and multi-faceted approach in countering terrorism to this end. From August 2003 to December 2009, a total of 71 training courses were conducted with 2,293 local and foreign officials participating. Programmes also included practical and simulation exercises, designed to add value and provide an interesting learning experience.
